North Carolina Watermelon Queen Scholarship Pageant Guidelines

The winner of the title of the North Carolina Watermelon Queen must sign a contract with the NCWA and comply with all promotions and events as set up during her year's reign by the NCWA Promotions Coordinator. NCWA reserves the following rights:

- The North Carolina Watermelon Queen will represent only the North Carolina Watermelon Association for a year (365 days) or until the new Queen is selected or appointed and will have no other activities that will interfere with her representation of NCWA during her reign including summer school or work schedule.
- In the event the North Carolina Watermelon Queen is unable to complete her reign for any reason, she will forfeit her crown and any unpaid scholarships. The first runner-up will be crowned the North Carolina Watermelon Queen.
- The runner-up must be ready to assume duties of Queen in the event of double booking or unforeseen events.
- Dress code to include skirts, sweaters, tops, blouses, dress slacks, dresses, suits and evening wear of a conservative nature, but always glamorous.

Qualities:

- The North Carolina Watermelon Queen should be an "all American girl" one who can be "at home" with a 3-year-old or a 93-year-old, a president, mayor, farmer in the field, a celebrity or housewife.
- Exhibit outstanding personality and communication skills, adaptability and the ability to cheerfully do her job in many different situations.
- Willingness to do as requested, whether helping prepare product for demos, carrying items, including luggage or meeting dignitaries, consumers or media.
- Willingness to arrange her schedule for tours with the NCWA Promotions Coordinator's schedule and not to expect the NCWA's schedule to fit hers.
- Show stamina and the ability and eagerness to handle long hours and difficult situations as required.
- Promptness and neatness.
- The North Carolina Watermelon Queen must have and exhibit, patience, sympathy, consideration for consumers and others as well as coordinator and chaperone, hosts and sponsors.
- Maturity, common sense, sense of humor and the willingness to give 110%.
